

The Monograph Series

Series Four

Please note: the fourth series of monographs in its entirety will make no sense without at least an embryonic, or nascent, understanding of the first three series, and, as such, if you haven't already done so, I highly recommend reading the first three series before even attempting to read this fourth series.

31 Working With Reality Anew

In this fourth series, I won't just introduce humanity to fourth-dimensional existence. I will explain it in depth to facilitate an understanding of what it is in actuality, because humanity will soon begin the Process of transcending Separated lower-dimensional existence – leaving it behind for good. To say fourth-dimensional existence is different from what we've known is a vast understatement. For those of us who are capable of making the adjustment and transition, we need to know our place in the fabric of the higher existence of fourth dimensionality, and we need to know what it means for us in our day to day lives. Most importantly, we need to know how it will affect our reality.

32 The Darkness Behind the Curtain

If transcendent Knowledge is one of Love's beautiful aspects, and it is, then its polar opposite – ignorance – is one of the uglier aspects of the Darkness. In fact, the Darkness and those who serve it need ignorance to survive and thrive, which is why they've Worked damned hard to mould and shape a culture of ignorance in this, our modern society. In our ignorant state we are wholly and soul-ly at their mercy. But this Truth, if turned around, Works in our favour. Knowledge is one of our greatest protections in our fight against the Darkness, and so, it is, therefore, also one of our greatest weapons.

33 The Restoration of Creation

The restoration of Creation is the healing and restoration of Consciousness, and vice versa, and both are the marriage of heaven and earth, symbolised by the reunion of Geb and Nut and, especially, of Osiris and Isis. Osiris is the 'Once and Future King', so with his resurrection, Set's rule ends and Creation is restored. Set, and the Darkness harnessing his power, fight tooth and nail to preserve their power and prevent Osiris's resurrection. This battle between the Light and the Darkness, waged not on the fields of Megiddo (Armageddon) but, rather, on the battleground of our psyche, has begun. It's a battle more epic than Homer's famous battle between gods and men at Troy.

34 The Fourth Dimension

The weave, or fabric, of fourth-dimensional existence is vastly different from the Separated lower dimensionality we're leaving behind. We need to walk into it with our eyes opened. Doing so will go a long way towards easing the Transition and alleviating some of our corresponding anxieties and insecurities. Reality is not the only aspect of existence we will Work with anew, although it is, perhaps, the most impacting. Knowing about some of the other facets, or features, of our changed existence will facilitate our resonance with it and aid assimilation by minimising discordances.

35 The Horus Plane and the Creative Flow

There are two planes of existence from which we can fight Set and the Dark Priests. There are also two planes of existence from which, and within which, we can Create. In both scenarios, the power of the lower plane does not and cannot compare with the power of the higher. On this higher plane, Set, and those who harness his power, are rendered powerless. To defeat him and unleash the True power of Creation, we need the higher plane. But the lower is all we know. So how do we access the higher? How do we touch it, Work with it, communicate with it, and, most importantly, set free its power?

36 Changing Our Frame of Reference

What does restored Creation look like, and how does it really differ from what we're used to? How do we Create? What is the True Nature of Creation? What does Creation concern itself with? And, what does restored Creation actually mean for us in our day to day existence and well beyond?

37 The Blueprint of Creation

The portal to the fourth dimension can only be accessed in one place, the same place we find God – within and through the heart. Which is quite handy because the source and flow of Creation can also only be accessed and set free within and through the heart. In reawakening the heart and restoring its beautiful rhythm, we are killing, or, more aptly, resurrecting many powerful metaphysical birds with one almighty stone. Obviously, then, the heart does far more for us than just pump blood through the vascular system in the body.

38 And in Arcadia We Go

In our Separated state, we are absolutely estranged from the power of Creation, despite, or, rather, because of the fact that it is the innate essence of our soul. But Creation's power is not, and has never been, Separated from us. Contrary to our belief that God has abandoned us, Creation has been busy for the entirety of our human existence. Our Hermetic blindness precludes our ability to perceive it, or recognise it, so, since this does not stop its current, it has been flowing underground, beyond our sight. Now, at this point in our evolution, 'tis time for this underground river to appear above ground once again. 'Tis time for us to Know what Creation has been up to. And why.

39 The Holy Grail of Creation

There are many aspects of ourselves we are missing and mourning in our Perpetually-Separated state. But perhaps the element we miss most is one we have, now, become so utterly estranged from we haven't just lost our ability to Work with it, we've also thoroughly lost the Knowledge, the mythology, and, crucially, the possibility and potentiality of it. Yet, this missing part of us is as vital to us as breath is to life. Without it we cannot be or feel fully and joyously alive. So the time has come for us to be restored to it, thus weaving it back into the canvass of our reality, collectively and individually.
