

The Monograph Series

Series Five

Please note: the previous four series of monographs Work to plough the field of our Thoughts and beliefs, and to introduce and then lead us to Truths about our Consciousness. As such, they form an essential foundation for this fifth series. If you haven't already done so, I highly recommend reading the first four series before even attempting to read this fifth series.

41 Creators

Courtesy of our enslavery and our illusional entrapment, Creation takes a little getting used to. Gone are the old rules and conditions for being, and gone, too, are the old limitations and dot programs upon which, and within which, we've been working with reality. We have to get to Know ourselves anew, as Creators. Knowledge, as it always does, this time, of Creation's inherent characteristics and fundamental Workings, will ease us into our new way of being, and potentially facilitate the ease with which we are able to make the transition into our Creative existence.

42 The Dreaming (1) – Untangling the Web

Creation has its own language, one that Works with Consciousness supremely powerfully because it is, in Truth, part of Consciousness. Creation's language uses symbolism in multi-faceted layers, at depths we've lost the ability to plumb, and with a complexity that can tend to require expert interpretation. The time has come for us to reconnect with this language, and to start Working with it again consciously, but so 'alien' has it become to us that it cannot be explained. We cannot see, connect with, grasp or interpret it with our shallow conscious intellect, so it must be embodied, exemplified, shown.

43 The Dreaming (2) – Nightmares and Dreams

As Creators, we have a wealth of resources at our disposal, not just within us, but also without. So we are able to weave stories into and as our realities that are, potentially, breathtaking in their scope, rich in opportunity for learning and experience, and, of course, enriched with the colour, vibrancy, uniqueness and power of Creation's innovative and imaginative Creativity. Why, then, are we settling for stories based solely on the dullness of illusion's utterly boring and predictable mundanity?

44 The Dreaming (3) – Resistance, Viscosity, and New Realities

The essence of Creation is more than just powerful. It is power – multifaceted and multi-dimensional power. We have to learn how to Work with this power, once again, yes, absolutely. First, though, we have to be prepared to handle it, because if we're not ready, its energy will burn us. Creation itself takes care of this preparation. But once it starts to flow through us, we experience an unexpected aspect of reality, and we need to be prepared for this, too. Once again, Knowledge will fortify us and make us ready.

45 The Dreaming (4) – Dreaming Stories of Conveyance

Stories were, in our ancient past, recognised as conveyors of spiritual essence, and they were honoured and preserved as sacred. Today, we are suffering from the lack of sacredness our ancestors accorded the art of storytelling and the stories themselves, despite the fact that the art of storytelling has never died. Stories are powerful mediums of Creation, and, so, we are naturally good at Working with them. We just need to remember that we Work with them at very deep levels of ourselves, and, then, how.

46 The Dreaming (5) – Checkmating the Ego

The human ego, for all its wants and obsessions, actually does not have high aspirations. On the contrary, it doesn't just settle for less, it fights to keep us lesser. In this state, any form of higher potentiality doesn't really get a look in. But right now, we are collectively birthing new potentiality streams that are carrying us on their current, taking us beyond ego, back into the Divine Truth of what we were originally Created to be. This is a state of being for which we are able to Create stories that allow us to aspire to great heights, climbing and reaching pinnacles of the highest achievements, and we have a chance to get to know ourselves anew. Slaves, no longer.

47 The Dreaming (6) – Reversing Our Polarity

Once the ego is checkmated and put in its place, Creation is free to reveal itself. With our perceptions released from the heavy density of egoic entrapment, we are free to raise and expand our vision. We are able to see and consciously connect with Creation's Divine Plan, not as a blueprint of possibility, but as a current in motion, one that's forming and shaping the landscape of our individual and collective realities as it ebbs and flows. Then, we begin to Know, and to reclaim, our power to Create new streams, or paths, of higher potentiality, and we are able to write new stories of our own.

48 The Dreaming (7) – Birthing New Potentiality Streams

We are experiencing a virtually-unprecedented overhaul of the internal infrastructure of our Consciousness that encompasses the way we think, the way we operate, and the way we Create. So massive is this change for us that we cannot handle it or accomplish it on our own, which is why there is, already in place, the greatest Army the world has ever seen. We, the Army, are here to birth the new paradigm of human existence. We are the Pioneers, the bridge between the old way of being and the new, and we are here to show the world how to navigate the scary space between the dimensions.

49 Uncovering Our Nakedness

We've hidden our True Divinity, and hidden from our True Divinity, behind illusional masks and costumes, not because we suddenly became knowledgeably aware of our nakedness but because we've been wandering lost and aimless in a fog of forgetfulness and ignorance. Now, this fog is clearing, and we are shedding the illusional mantles that have been shrouding and disguising us. The True face and form of our Divine Nature is being revealed, but whilst some of us will celebrate the beauty we see within and around us, others of us are going to squirm in utter discomfort.

50 Our Celestial Heritage

The time is now upon us for which we must confront and remember the whole Truth of our rightful heritage. Doing so will finally reverse the wrongs done to us and facilitate us returning to heaven, within which we exist as our normal state, in perfect communion with Divine Consciousness. The full Knowledge of our DNA is a vital element of this Process, not just what it holds, but also who has programmed it, because with our full heritage must come the Knowledge of our inherent connection with the Cosmos and all the beautiful and not-so-beautiful cultures of our local Celestial community.
